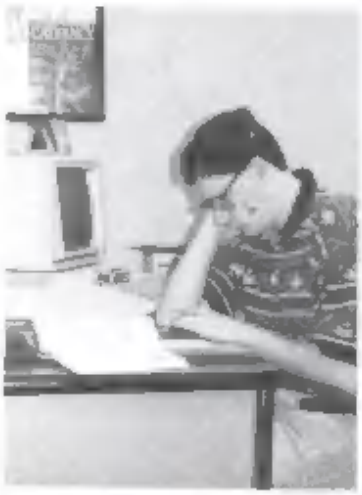
Student Helpers

Many students take time out of their busy schedules to help with various activities. Such activities range from team managers to teaching assistants. From the number of students who give their time to help others Northridge couldn't live without them. For all of you student helpers, we thank you for all of your time and efforts. You are much appreciated!

Kindergardners from Mrs. Sanders morning class proudly share a show-and-tell treasure with teachers assistant Katrina Rasler. Katrina helps out at Orchard View Elementary School .

As a student helper at Orchard View Elementary, Krista Lantz helps students in Mr. Nofziger's fifth grade class.



Students spend many hours working with teachers as teaching assistants. Pat McMahon totals scores for Mrs. Weeks' freshmen classes. Other teaching assistant duties include helping students, filing, stapling, and running errands.

Michelle Martin, soccer manager, dutifully folds jerseys for girls soccer team. Managers also assist the team by carrying water, towels, and assisting the coach .

Volunteering to help feed the hungry, Jennifer Martin delivers a cart full of food which was donated by the students and teachers of Northridge High School.

As an athletic trainer at Northridge, Myndi Weeks not only tapes up athletes, she also cheers for the team during their rough and tough games.

Student helper Erin Gordon helps Mrs. Keil in the guidence office. Her job, among other duties includes, answering phone calls and working on the computer. As you can tell she enjoys her work.

"Northridge High School, student speaking." is an often heard phrase as students replace secretaries and receptionists throughout the school. Replacing Mrs. Smucker on the phone is student helper Sarah Signeski. Along with answering phones, helpers also take messages, file, and run errands.

C A R S

"Girls just want to have fun". Heidi Finch, Karalee Miller, and Paula Rolston get ready to go for a drive in Heather Yoder's Jeep.

Boyz On The Hood wannabee, Gavin Collins, camps out and waits for Charlie Feathers to take him for a ride in the Grand Am.

"Look at all this food!" Mrs. Conway exclaims as Michelle Wilson, Megan Martin, and Jennifer Martin stop to take a breather from packing the donated food into boxes. A competition was held among the first hour classes to see what class could donate the most food. The winning class received donuts during its first hour.

April Riley and Jennifer Martin take a soil sample from the Bristol Bay for S.C.U.B.E. Club.

Student Council Members Sara Putz, Duana Yonts and Rachel Sapen provide face tattoos for spirit week as a fund raiser.

STUDENTS WORK OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL

A student and a part-time worker finds it can be very complicated trying to keep grades up and maintain a decent G.P.A. Students look hard to find a part-time job that suits them and that they can have fun doing. Getting out and finding a job during high school is both good for students now, and will help them in the future. Fast food, convenience stores, clothing stores, restaurants and small businesses, are all fine places for high school students in need of work. Most places require students to be sixteen or older. The town of Middlebury is full of part-time employment for Northridge students, but Elkhart and Goshen also offer many options. Good luck to all future business owners who are now working for someone else!

Working as a cashier at the Marathon gas and service station, by Six Span Bridge near Elkhart is the ideal job for Kathy Stufflebeam. "It's really fun!," says Kathy.

Lisa Crowder uses her math skills learned in Mr. Voegtmier's Algebra II class, at her job as a cashier-hostess for Lissenhans Restaurant located just south of NHS.

Enos Miller's job is to clean and prepare Cardinal buses for departure. Cardinal Bus offers tours for visitors around the Crystal Valley and Northridge area.

Selling jewelry is one of Sara Flager's many duties at Montgomery Wards in the Concord Mall. Sara earns her extra cash after school and on weekends.

"Paper or plastic?" Craig White asks at Harding's supermarket. Harding's, located in Middlebury, employs many local high school students. Positions range from baggers, cashiers, deli work, and other various jobs.

"Man may work from sun to sun, but stable work is never done." Brushing horses, cleaning saddles, mending fence, and sweeping the stable are all in a day's work for Chad Bomtrager at Foxglove Farm.

Working very hard at the service desk at Montgomery Wards in Concord Mall, Mandi Ragsdale keeps her cool with impatient customers.

Aaron Routh mans the drive-through station at Hardees in Middlebury. Other fast food restaurants that employ many NHS students are Dairy Queen and Taco Bell.

Hippie style is the way Kashi Heynis was on Halloween night at Foot Locker in Concord Mall.

Three glamorous ladies, Nicole Berg, Sherri Miller, and Bobbi Caton have a night to remember

Dancing to the music, Matt Miller seems to enjoy entertaining a small crowd

Sabrina Thomas and her date rest between dances

Dressed to kill in tuxedo finery, Josh Leer, Martin Wilson, Matt Bontrager, Rich Evans, Chad Myers, Justin Baker, and Andy Blake display their finest evening attire

PROM

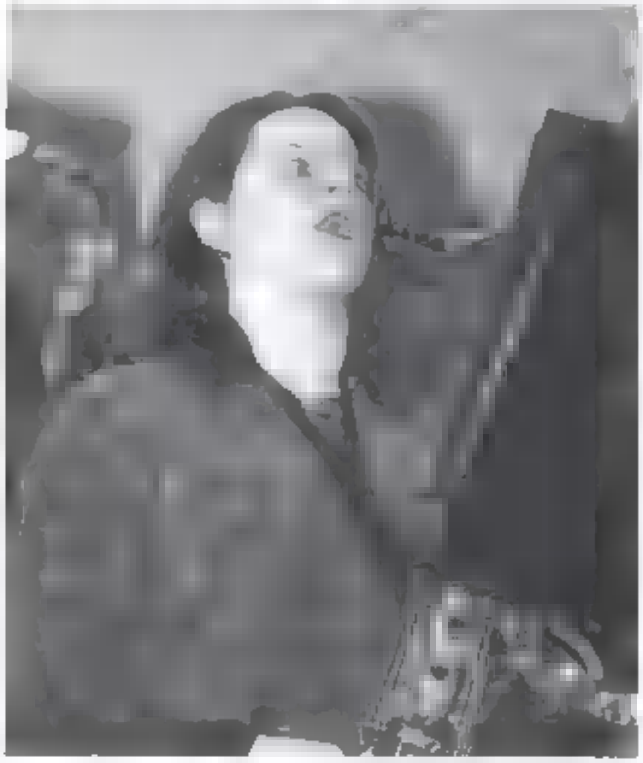
Each uniquely adorned in formal finery the most beautiful girls attended the prom. Andrea Springer, Anika Wedel, Alissa Bledsoe, Brooke Tilley, Amber Yoder, Jolene Williams, Nicole Adams, Kathy Ferguson, Michelle Jordan, Mandy Bontrager, Jennifer Drake, Sarah Erickson, Robin Yoder, Rebecca Erickson, Lisa Crowder, Brooke Beckford, Melinda Smith, Ariel Knobbe, and Brandy Morris.

Justin Baum, Ben Johnson, and Nate Pletcher stand by and watch as Josh Bowlby turns Michelle Stephenson into a pumpkin head.

Wes Scott Beier in the Christmas spirit this year or what?

WEIRD STUFF



Heather Berkey stops to take a big breath while playing in jazz band during a basketball game.

Do her feet hurt? Is she crazy? No Summer Gary just flips upsidedown for school.

HOME EC

Sarah Flager, Joy Miller, Mrs. Woodruff, and Megan Martin are ready to chow down in their food class. Every meal is made by the class.

Toil, toil, boil and bubble, cauldron steam and cauldron bubble (McBeth) foods student, but not McBeth's Witch. Lisa Crowder toils over a pot of stone soup (read your fairy tales for that literary allusion).

Jeremy Pinckert, Jason Brindley, Shannon Clements, and Landon Hostetler show that home ec isn't just a girls class at NHS. They all seem to have a good time!

Josh Fletcher, Matt Miller, and Rob Grouver show the doing dishes is not only a woman's job. Everyone pitches in to help after a lab.

Mrs. Shari Woodruff

Mrs. Tonya Rhodes

Imagine the World Without Art!

Christina Wantz displays her work of art for the class to see.

Ryan Yoder and Mr. Cockman learn that cooperation is a good way to get things done.

Carrie Watson concentrates on an assignment in Art II.

Elkhart Area Career Center is a Place to Grow and Learn

Elkhart Area Career Center is not just a place to get away from school, it is a place to advance in learning new things and taking on new tasks. There are many areas of study at the center. From cosmetology to mechanics, there is something for everyone!

Dallis Geyer expresses her artistic talents at the career center.

Holly Houpingarner attends the Elkhart Area Career Center for Cosmetology. Playing the customer, she lets a classmate tip a few strands.

Glenford Bontrager applies his talents as he overhauls a Yamaha engine.

Blue uniforms, sirens, and flashing lights are the dream of Larry Hooley, who practices Law Enforcement at the Elkhart Area Career Center.

Learn Help

Mrs. Katz to Adam Troyer and Dan Powell

Mr. Myers and Jerry Lindvelle have fun working on the computer.

Mrs. Katz Adam Troyer, and Dan Powell work hard on class work.

Levi Lebold discovers that computer learning is the best kind of learning.

The Guidance Office offers much help to Northridge students. Guidance councelors Mrs. Woodworth, Mr. Snyder, and Mr Rhodes are there for anything from schedule changes to college visits. Not to mention that they're always there as someone to talk to. Guidance also offers information about college. Computers and books are available to help Juniors and Seniors choose their college and future. With all this available, it is obvious that Northridge students couldn't survive without the guidance office.

Brooke Beckford demonstrates working in the office

Mr. Rhodes points out lots of valuable information on career planning.

Matt Miller demonstrates the use of computers offered in the guidance office while looking for important college information.

GUIDANCE AND SUPPORT

Nicole Klotz makes Mrs. Smucker laugh at the hard office work she does. Nicole is just one of the many office workers that help out in all the offices during their study halls.

Scott Fiddler, Josh Mitchell, James Claybome, and Leah Martin are hard at work studying in the pass room. Tutors and help are available during study hall every hour in the passroom for any student seeking major homework help.

Cooks and Custodians

Volunteers

To some, volunteering means more than just raising your hand to answer a teacher. Volunteering means giving up a bit or a lot of free time to help those who are in need of assistance. Helping others and sharing your talents are great ways to express yourself. Whether you help the young, old, handicapped, or the earth, you are doing a wonderful service to the community, as well as the people around you. So to all of those volunteers out there, we give you a hand. Thanks for your help!

The Class of 1995 consisting of 395 members received diplomas on June 10, 1995 in the Northridge High School Gym.

Faculty Speaker Mr. Kattau, recalling his previous job experiences, reminded the Class of 1995 to find strength in their beliefs and values instilled in them by their parents.

"We did it!" Misty Weeks receives a congratulatory hug from commencement speaker Jennifer Hernandez. "We've been friends since second grade," recalled Misty who leaves for IU in the Fall. "I'll attend IUSB," said Jennifer, "but we'll stay in touch."

A step to the future for Jason Gibson followed by Megan Ober and Ryan Yoder.

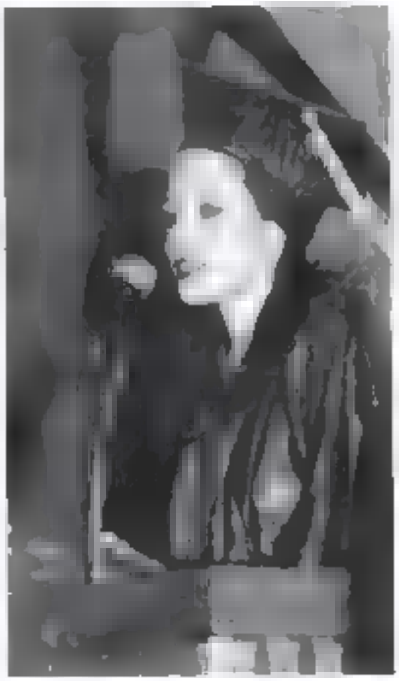
"We are the future!"

GRADUATION



The Class of 1995 concluded its twelve years of education with a graduation ceremony held in the Northridge High School gym. Student speaker Jennifer Hernandez spoke to her classmates about accepting the challenges that the future holds.

"There is a sign on my father's refridgerator door that says, 'No one plans to fail.' Jennifer Hernandez told her classmates. "There are only those who fail to plan."

Senior Class President Scott Beier receives special recognition for his academic achievement from Vice Principal Mr. Rasler.

Debbie Green, Jason Peters, Justin Kindy, and Janet Weaver listen as Mr. Lichtenberger calls each of their classmates forward to receive his or her diploma.

Jenessa Miller and Tim Miller share the joys of chemistry together.

A stroll down the sophmore hall would lead to Justin Posey at his locker. Each student at Northridge is assigned one of the 1200 lockers. Students however sometimes share their lockers with boyfriends/girlfriends and other friends. In the Northridge lockers, you can probably find anything from old gum to dead mice. Some students use their lockers as closets, keeping clothing, hats and other things in there. Locker clean-out happens once every semester, a chance for teachers to catch up on their pen and pencil supply.

Michelle Stephenson decides to paint Ryan Brindley instead of the paper during spirit week, hoping they'll win the most spirit.

Nicole Klotz does the timing for the wonder car races for the science class.

Homecoming crowd includes: Sara Miller, Brooke Weirich, Kasinda Rasler, Heidi Zimmerman, Amy Rogers, April Allision, Jenny Johnson, Melanie Myers, and Liane Endres.

Lindsey Shaffer and Jeremy Neeley are busy making a spirit poster for the sophomore hall during spirit week.

David Gum and Bryon Craven talk softly so they don't disturb Brian Swinehart who seems to have

Brian Swinehart studies hard as the beat of Nasty Boys goes through his head

Gina Caraballo and Dawn Fair 'pop a squat' and rest at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Michelle Lambdin shows us just how happy we can all be in the morning.

Rich Kindel sits and pays close attention to the teacher but it looks like we caught him looking at the cameras instead

Amber Williams points to show the other freshmen where their chairs are in the class. Having seven different classes can leave you confused and forgetful at the end of the day.

Lucas Wade takes the time to stop for a picture on his way to English class. The freshmen just love to have their picture taken.

Trevor Warner, a.k.a. class clown smiles and laughs as he plans his next trick and watches the class's reaction. Being a freshmen at school can sometimes be boring, but the class of 1998 can liven it up!

FRESHMEN FACES IN THE CLASS OF 1998

Linda Ingraffia, Tori Andrson, Carlie Kloboves, Chrisi Posey, Angela Riley, and Amber Williams tell Santa, Craig Sheets what they want for Christmas. It looks like he already has everything he wants.

Mike Zehr shows off his fancy foot work as he runs cross country and makes his Freshmen class proud!

All is better now! Chris Neeley looks 100% better and everyone is glad. Earlier this year Chris was in the hospital after he and another friend were in a car/scooter accident. Chris was in the hospital with serious head injuries. He was moved to a rehab in South Bend Memorial. He was able to return to school for a few hours each day after Thanksgiving. We were all happy to have Chris return full time to school and everyone is glad to have him back.

Some freshman need fashion tips. Just take a look at Angela Riley luckily she fits right in for our funky hair day!

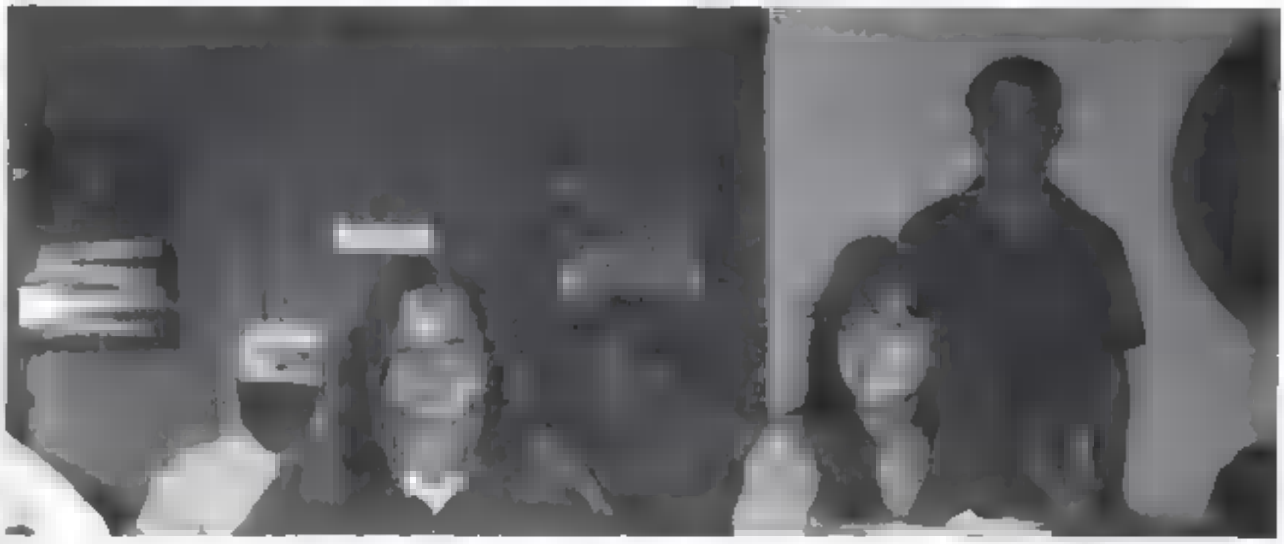
Wild and crazy kids! Gordon Heeter, Jimmy Rolston, Mike Bloom and Bryan Bontrager show what the freshman do for fun when they get together. Would you like to go to one of their parties?



Tiffany Baker goes all out for spirit day with her school spirit by wearing her school colors while Amanda Petry, and Jacob Briscoe look on.

Swimmers Take a Dive

This season the boys swim team finished with an eleven and four dual meet record which was outstanding considering they graduated thirteen seniors from the previous years team. In doing so they broke several school records and finished fourth in the NLC. Overall, this was the hardest working boys team I've coached and that is the main reason for the success they enjoyed. A definite highlight was beating Concord for the first time ever.

FANS

There are two groups who are always at our football games and at our basketball games. That is our Raider Band and our cheerleaders. These students never stop giving our teams support. Thank you for all the cold nights you've spent trying to warm up the crowd and for believing in our teams, even when they were down by twenty points in the final quarter.

Lisa Crowder and Sarah Erikson give Michelle Irelan a helping hand.

The Raider marching band waits for a cue from the drum majors to play another song to help the football team along.

Jenny Williamson, Rod Guilliam, Brian Lechlitner, and Ryan Brindley crowd the stands as they show up for another great football game.

True Senior support! Chad Delagrange, Scott Shriner, Tim Bontrager, Jeremy Pinckert, and Chad Myers make a pyramid to help cheer on the Northridge football team.

Congratulations Seniors of '95

Through your hard work and dedication, you've reached a goal—graduation. Of course, there will be many more challenges to meet. At Coachmen Industries we've reached goals made years ago, but still strive to reach those made yesterday. It's how we grow as a company. You, too, should persist in your efforts to make the dreams of today the reality of tomorrow. By constantly reaching for those goals, you ensure a prosperous future.

I never expected to come to Goshen College.

I thought it was too close to home, and I wanted my freedom and independence. To my surprise, GC gave me both. The people here at GC are great and I have made many new friends who have the same morals, values and spiritual beliefs as me. I find that reassuring. I do not regret coming to Goshen College for one second!

Friends Forever

Lisa Crowder, Brooke Beckford, Jolene Williams, Nicole Adams

Stephanie,
May God always bless you real good, as your dreams come true.
Love &
Always,

Mom, Dad, &
Melanie.

To Melinda Ortiz

From tiny fingers and little toes, with timeless friends, we've watched you grow. Now that you've reached one of your goals, we wish you the best for what the future holds.
"Congratulations"

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Brothers

"Congratulations Chad"
We are very proud of you. Good luck in all you do!
Love,

Mom & Dad

Kellie,

You have brought more happiness and blessings into our lives than we could ever have dreamed of ..... As you close this chapter in your life and begin a new and exciting adventure at Taylor, we rest assured that God will always be your guide.

"But I trust in you O Lord; I say 'You are my God.' My times are in your hands." Psalms 31:14.... "I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.....All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be." Psalms 139; 14, 16, NIV

Congratulations, Kellie, we love you so very much,

Mom, Dad,
Ryann and Megan.

Erica,

Don't be afraid to fail. You've failed many times, although you may not remember. You fell down the first time you tried to walk. You almost drowned the first time you tried to swim, didn't you?
Did you hit the ball the first time you swung a bat? We always told you, the heavy hitters hit the most home runs, but they also strike out a lot.

You will turn 18 and graduate all in the same month. The years have gone by fast, you became a very beautiful young lady and over the years you have learned to trust in God. Don't worry about the failures, life is to short. Worry about the chances you will miss when you don't even try. Remember to always trust in God, he will never let you down. You made your first big decision as an adult. You joined the Navy. We know you, you will do your best.

Love always,

Mom & Dad.

Candy Baer,
We always knew you could go further then the neighbors, and you did! You make us very proud. Good luck.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Kim

P.S. Get a faster horse!!

Jennifer,
You've had your share of problems and ADVERSITIES but your persistence and knowledge always takes you to the top. (Remember to think before you speak (or record))

Your Family

Randy,
To a wonderful son and a great brother. We are so proud of you! Good Luck! And may all your dreams come true.

We love you,
Mom, Dad,&
Cheryl

Ashley Abbott,

From your first day of school, we knew you would do great things.

We love you!

Mom, Dad,
Heather and Bruce

Jason,
We're all proud of the great job you've done!

Love,
Dad, Mom,
Daniel, Matt,
Ben, Adam,
Joey, Leslie,
and Elizabeth

Christy Key,

Like a rose you will bloom forever. I'm very proud of you.

Mom

To all our Senior Pals, we wish you the best. Good luck in the following years. School will never be the same without you. You showed us how to have a good time, and we'll never forget you for that. Thanks for everything and have fun. Be sure to come back and visit.

Seated: Nicole Berg, Jami Packer, Mark Grubaugh, and Jason Riegsecker.
Second row: Jenn Rogers, Kelle Hostetler, Kathy Stufflebeam, Jessie Frederick, Lisa Crowder, and Garrick Trotter.
Third row: Jenny Johnston, Summer Gary, Kashi Heynis, and Anika Wedel.

Yearbook Staff of 1994-1995

Summer Gary enjoyed helping others, her favorite pages were her spirit pages. She'll miss getting up at 6:00 in the morning, and her advise to next year is: get your pages done on time!

Lisa Crowder thought the best part of class was walking around taking pictures. She liked doing the boys tennis pages. She'll miss taking pictures and ad runs. Her advice is learn to develop film and expect to work hard.

Jenn Rogers says her favorite part of class is in the dark room, her best pages are pages 2 and 3. She'll miss playing in the dark room, work with the Macintosh, and going on ad runs. Her advice to next year's class is: make sure your pages are in on time and learn how to develop pictures.

Kelle Hostetler enjoyed working on the computers after learning how to use them, her best pages were the clothes and cars pages. She'll miss Mrs. Weeks and Mr. Kaufman. Her advice to next year's class is: keep busy and get pages done on time.

Jami Packer says her best pages were her softball and senior pages. She'll miss using the computers. She gives next year's class this advise: get pages done on time & have parties.

Jason Riegsecker liked to design his own pages. His best page was the girls cross country. His advice to next year's class is get pages done.

Garrick Trotter enjoyed being in the dark room and the doughnut parties. He thought his [illegible] pages were his best pages. He'll miss developing all the film. His advice to the next class is get your stuff done.

Kashi Heynis thought her best pages were her jobs page and Elkhart Career Center page. Her favorite part of class was finishing a page and going on ad runs. She'll miss going on ad runs and doing pages. Her advice to next year's class is: Good luck and, get pages done so you can have doughnut parties!

Jessie Frederick's favorite part of class was the creativity to do your own pages. Her best pages were the home ec pages. She'll miss the freedom she had during class. And her advice to next year's class is be ready to work, it's a hard but fun class.

Nicole Berg enjoyed ad runs. Her best pages were the prom pages. She'll miss the hands on learning and the people. She wants to tell next year's class to LEARN FAST!

Mark Grubaugh liked to develop pictures. His best pages were his boys basketball pages. He'll miss working on the Macintosh computers. His advice to the other class is NEVER GET BEHIND!

Anika Wedel says her best pages were the soccer pages. She'll miss using her imagination. She leaves this advice to next year's class: Don't get behind, check over everything; it will save you a lot of time in the long run.

Kathy Stufflebeam says her favorite part of class is going on ad runs, her best pages are the ad pages, she'll miss the doughnut parties. Her advice to next year's class is get work done on time so you can have doughnut parties!
